Keywords: keyword 1, keyword 2... keyword 5

1. Introduction

All papers should have an introduction section which should include a description of the main problems, purpose and objectives of the work. An introduction should not just be a copy of an abstract. The introduction chapter is the first chapter in the paper and must be marked by the ordinal number.

The titles of all main chapters have to be marked with ordinal numbers: 1., 2., 3., and written in Times New Roman, font size 14-pt, bold letters, aligned with the left margin.

The spacing between chapters should be two empty lines, and between sub-chapters and sub sub-chapters it should be one empty line.

The whole text should be written in Times New Roman, 12-pt, line spacing 1.0 and aligned on both sides (justify). Margins must be set at 2.5 cm.

The new section should start by indenting the first word (tab 0,5 cm).

1.1. Sub-chapters

1.1.1. Sub sub-chapters

Subchapters and sub-subchapters have to be written as shown in this example. Subchapters should be written in Times new Roman, 12-pt, bold, italic. Sub sub-chapters should be written in Times New Roman, 12-pt, bold, italic.

2. Extent of the paper

The extent of the paper should not exceed 10 pages, A4 paper format (including the abstract, all the chapters, a list of references, figures, tables, graphs etc.).

3. Citing

When quoting or referring to a book or author it is recommended to cite the sources directly within the text itself (Petrić, 2011, 29).

4. Figures, tables and graphs

Figures, tables and graphs should be written in black and white or color and marked as follows:

Source: Times New Roman, 10-pt

The font of text in tables have to be single-spaced in 10-pt Times New Roman.

5. Conclusion

The conclusion is an obligatory part of the paper. It specifies the concluding observations, the advantages and disadvantages of proposed solutions and the like. The conclusion should not be a copy of the abstract.

B I B L I O G R A P H Y

The bibliography should be marked by the ordinal numbers 1., 2., 3., and specified by the alphabetical order (Times New Roman, 11-pt, line spacing 1,0):
